

FUNKBEAT
SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Terms and Conditions

We are a group of self-motivated musicians with a shared vision of imparting music to the masses and making it an integral part of everyone's life.

- Students aged 6 years and above are welcome.
- Batches consist of 2–4 students.
- One-on-one classes are also available.
- Students can join any day of the month and start learning.

Curriculum & Approach

- Students are introduced to beginner, intermediate, and advanced level music courses, including genres like Rock, Blues, Country, Country Blues, and Reggae.
- Exposure to playing styles of both national and international musicians.
- Emphasis on technique and musical nuance, not note memorization.
- Guidance is provided for the Trinity College of London and Rock School London music exams.
- Internal assessments are conducted and parents/guardians are regularly updated.

Beyond the Classroom

- Students are mentored for stage shows, workshops and competitions.
- Regular opportunities to showcase talents and build confidence.
- Group performances are organized every 2-3 months to nurture peer interaction and healthy competition.

Fee Structure

- Our fees are reasonable and competitive.
- No fee waivers for absences due to exams or personal leaves.
- Fees are payable throughout the year, including exam seasons or absences.
- The fee structure is subject to revision after each financial year.
- Registration fees are non-refundable.

Attendance Policy

- In case of emergencies, if a student misses a class, they will be eligible to attend one compensatory class (out of two per month).

Note: Your cooperation is highly appreciated in maintaining a disciplined and positive learning environment.
